A Slick Young Man Tells They the War Is On-Charles Davis Is Indicted Twice More for Burglary-A Shop Lifter.

The session of the Police Court yester-day did not close until bank hours, and if the week keeps up with the same ratio of important cases it will be a record breaker.

The next case of great interest was that of Charles Davis, the "second-story burglar," who is already under several indictments for robbery. He was now charged with entering the store of J. M. One of the shirts was found in the house of Callie Jones (colored), and she testified that Davis left it there.

As in the other cases, Davis was sent on. While in court, two officers kept close to Davis and narrowly watched his every movement, evidently regarding him as a bird, who would take desperate chances at flight.

An immense crowd pressed forward when the name of J. H. Baroff was called, charg-ing him with cursing abusing, beating and cruelly treating his girl wife.

Baroff conducts a dry goods store in his mother's name in Fulton, and is himself under twenty-one years of age, and his wife is nineteen.

She declared that she had done everything in the world to please her husband, even working when she was sick, working all day and being locked in the house alone at night with the baby, while he was out spending money gambling and in other "bad ways."

Richardson, who took the stand, that they had agreed to a separation, and that he drew up the to a separation, and that he drew up the papers in which Baroff agreed to pay her seven dollars each week. That she subsequently came to him and stated that her husband had not kept his agreement as to the pay, and that she was without means and had no where to go.

Mr. Rictardson advised her to seek a divorce and allmony, but, learning that

Baroff was under age, doubted the success of such procedure.

He then told her to return to her hus-hand peaceably, and tell him she find come to be taken care of with her child, and if he then treated her cruelly to bring the matter into the criminal court.

ABOUT HEART DISEASE,

Ninety Per Cent. of it Really Caused From Poor Digestion.

Real organic heart trouble is incurable but scarcely one case in a hundred is or

The action of the heart and stomach are both controlled by the same great nerves— the sympathetic and pneumogastric—and when the stomach fails to properly digest the food and it lies in the storach fer-menting, gases are formed which distend the organ, causing pressure on the heart

The danger from this condition is that, the continued disturbance of the heart sooner or later may cause real organic heart trouble and in fact frequently does

Furthermore, poor digestion makes the blood thin and watery and deficient in red corpuscles, and this further irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible thing to do for heart trouble is to insure the digestion and assimilation of the food.

This can be done by the regular use, after meals, of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain the necessary digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

THANKSGIVING.

A Worthy Institution That Should Be Remembered.

Remembered.

In realling many mercies the natural feeling of every grateful heart is to express its "Thanksgiving" by helping those less fortunate than themselves. To the credit of the Richmond people be it said they never forget this duty. The charitable institutions of the city are always well remembered, but there are outside the city institutions which have quite as strong a claim upon sympathy.

Among them there is none more deserving than the Laurel Industrial School, ng than the Laurel Industrial School, thenrico county, Va. Here are gathered one hundred and fifty boys from all over the State of Virginia. These boys are ooking forward with great pleasure to Thanksgiving Day.

Let the friends of the institution and the generous public contribute to the happings of the boys of Laurel by such gifts as turkeys, fruit, etc. Articles sent to R. L. Christian, Herman Schm'dt, Mc-Carthy & Haynes will be gratefully re-ceived by the inmates of Laurel.

An Appeal for Aid.

Au Appeal for Aid.

The City Mission is in immediate need of funds, and the ladies in charge of the work make an urgent appeal for aid. Besides being in need of food and clothing for distribution among the poor of the city, the treasury of the mission is reduced to about $20, and the daily appeals for assistance must necessarily be responded to in a very sparing way.

All persons disposed to make a thank offering for the poor, no matter how small, can send it to Mrs. A. Y. Stokes, No. 15 East Franklin Street; Mrs. Glover, No. 205 East Gary Street; Mrs. Glover, No. 205 East Cary Street; Mrs. Harlow, No. 413 West Marshall Street; Mrs. Raleigh Colston, No. 20 East Grace Street.

MISSION BOARD,

Bantists of the State in Session at the First Church.

Baptists of the State in Session at the First Church.

The Baptist State Mission Board of Virginia, which has been in annual session here since Monday evening, held the final session at the First Baptist Church last night. The meeting was one of the largest ever held, being attended by members from all parts of the State. Dr. George Cooper, president of the board, presided. Several appointments were made, and the general plan of the year's work discussed. The appropriation for the coming year was made $20,217. This amount largely exceens the appropriations made in past years. The number of raissionaries in the field this year will be twenty more than last years, making the total about one hundred. While most of the work of the board is among the whites, the board assists the colored Baptists to support one general and three district missionaries.

Among those present from a distangeneral distangeneral distangeneral distangeneral form a distangeneral field; Mr. M. M. Moore, of Glade Spring, Rev. T. B. Thames, of Danville; P. D. Camp, of Franklin county; Rev. Julian Broaddus, of Berryville; Rev. S. J. Haley, Buckners; Rev. H. T. Williams, of Chase City, and Rev. F. W. Claybrook, of Kilmanock.
